UNITED STATES AIR FORCE

COLONEL LEONARD (LEN) A. PATRICK

Colonel Leonard (Len) A. Patrick is commander of the 60th Support Group, Travis Air Force Base, Calif. As commander, he is responsible for base infrastructure, communications, security, personnel, and services supporting 25,000 personnel within the 60th Air Mobility Wing, including reservists, civilian employees and dependents. He directs five squadrons providing support to airlift and tanker mission requirements; maintains combat deployment readiness; and he controls an annual budget of over $48 million and resources exceeding $450 million.

Colonel Patrick entered the Air Force in May 1981 upon receiving his Bachelor of Science Degree from the U.S. Air Force Academy.

He served in various base-level, headquarters, and special duty civil engineer duties. He commanded the 12th Civil Engineer Squadron at Randolph Air Force Base, Texas; he was the commander of the 21st Civil Engineer Squadron Operations Flight at Peterson Air Force Base, Colo.; and he served in several positions in the 15th Civil Engineer Squadron at Hickam Air Force Base, Hawaii. He has served on three headquarters staffs: Headquarters U.S. Air Forces in Europe at Ramstein Air Base, Germany; Headquarters U.S. Air Force at the Pentagon, Washington, D.C.; and Headquarters Air Combat Command, Langley Air Force Base, Va. Colonel Patrick served two years in Foreign Military Sales in Riyadh, Saudi Arabia, as a construction manager for the Royal Saudi Air Force. During that time, he supported Desert Shield/Storm operations by performing site surveys, coordinated host-nation support for deployed forces, and performed contingency airfield analysis. He also served with the Illinois State Water Survey at Champaign Illinois, in an Education with Industry tour.
